

Commercial Cases

Massey et al. v. Moe's Southwest Grill, LLC et al. (N.D. Ga. 2007) (Story, J. presiding). Successful defense of Moe's Southwest Grill, LLC and its founder Martin Sprock resulting in dismissal of RICO and fraud claims brought by 32 past or present Moe's franchisees.

Discrete Wireless, Inc. v. Coleman Technologies (N.D. Ga. 2010) (Brill, Mag., presiding). Obtained $400,000 jury verdict in trial of a contract case involving sale of allegedly defective GPS tracking units. Prevailed on multi-million dollar claim asserted by Coleman for attorney's fees relating to costs of collection on outstanding invoices. Judgment was reversed in part on appeal of the favorable verdict, but the judgment was not appealed as to the attorney's fees victory.

SED International v. Archbrook Laguna (AAA Arbitration in Washington, D.C. 2008). Obtained a successful award for SED, an electronics distributor, from arbitration panel resulting in a judgment dismissing a major antitrust and RICO lawsuit asserted against SED by Archbrook, a competitor.

Nova Capital, LLC v. Kids R Kids International, LLC (Gwinnett State 2000). Obtained a $3.5 million jury verdict on claims of breach of franchise agreement and conversion. Settled case for confidential amount while on appeal.

Knapp v. CPS Systems, Inc. (M.D. Fla. 1997). Successful defense at trial in 3 week jury trial of pregnancy discrimination case.

DNC Providers v. Metric Constructors (AAA Arbitration in Atlanta 1996). Obtained six figure damages award on behalf of DNC, a developer, against contractor.